Paducah Extends a Royal Welcome to the Distinguished Members of Louisville's

Board of Trade—Special Arrived at Noon—Congressman Wheeler Welcomes—Reception at the Palmer House Followed Dinner.

DELEGATION ARRIVES.

The delegation of 100 members of the Louisville board of trade arrived at noon on the finest special train that ever passed through South-west Kentucky. The distinguished guests were met at the train in addition to a large crowd, by Mayor Lang and President Paxton, of the Commercial club, and the following reception committee:

Geo. C. Wallace, John P. Weeks, W. E. Covington, Abe Livingston, E. W. Baker, I. Naubheim, R. G. Terrell, J. P. Smith, J. K. Boudant, L. M. Riecke, S. Fels, Simon Hecht, John Rock, James E. Robertson, Harry Hank, E. B. Harbour, O. L. Gregory, L. S. DuBois, Joe Yeiser, H. R. Lindsey, M. Bloom, Adolph Weil, Jos. L. Friedman, Sol Dreyfus, John Rinkoff, Henry Kahn, H. Stark, Wm. Horner, E. W. Smith, J. L. Kilgore, J. E. Koger, J. H. Ashcraft, L. A. Lagomarsino, P. F. Toof, Frank Riecke, Muscoe Burnett, J. W. Little, E. P. Gilson, E. K. Lack, E. E. Bell, Oscar Stark, Mike Michael, George Langstaff, A. J. Decker, A. J. Ferguson, E. Farley, Fred Kramler, Joe Hightberger, Henry Potter, M. W. Johnson, Will Jackson, P. W. Katterjohn, C. H. Chamblin, W. K. Poage, L. B. Ogilvie, Urey Woodson, J. C. Flournoy, James E. Wilhelm, E. J. Paxton, George C. Thompson, H. L. Reeves, S. B. Hughes, Wm. Hughes, Richard Rudy, C. W. Thompson, Captain Joe Fowler, B. H. Scott, Chas. Weille, Chas. Q. Leigh, Herman Friedman, and R. G. Caldwell.

The visitors were extended an informal welcome and proceeded at once to the string of cars that had been provided for them and were in waiting at the depot. Dean's band accompanied the committee, and with the Newboys' band of Louisville, rendered music that brought crowds to the street car line all the way to the hotel.

At the Palmer house there was another large crowd in waiting, and Mayor James M. Lang, on behalf of the city, briefly welcomed the visitors and introduced Congressman Charles K. Wheeler, who formally welcomed them in a most cordial manner.

The response was made by Mr. Kennedy, secretary of the Kentucky Wagon company, who was introduced by President Taylor, of the Louisville board of trade.

Attorney John McDermott, of Louisville, followed in a fifteen minutes' speech which fully explained the object of the visit, and which was one of the best short addresses ever heard in Paducah. He asked that every one join hands in making Kentucky one of the foremost states in the union, and assist in the effort to make her wares known all over the United States. Among other things he explained that the excursion idea was originated for the sole purpose of bringing the state and city merchants into closer touch with each other, and at the same time to prove to the state merchants that Louisville markets are equal to those of other cities. If it is proved to the merchants of Paducah that they can buy dry goods, flour and other commodities as cheaply in the Louisville markets as they can in Chicago or St. Louis it is reasonable to suppose that they will go there.

GROCER DEAD.

MR. J. M. FLANARY SUCCEUMBS AFTER A LONG ILLNESS.

Mr. John M. Flanary, the well known groceryman died at his home, 914 South Fourth street, this morning about 8 o'clock of fever after an illness of several days. The deceased was formerly in the grocery business on South Second street, but his place of business burned out last winter and since that time he had been employed at Bockman's grocery corner Seventh and Court streets. He was born at Marion and was 38 years of age at his death and had been a resident of this city about six years. His remains will be shipped to Princeton tonight for interment.

Those parties who so kindly subscribed to the Home of the Friendless fund will greatly oblige the lady managers by paying first call at once into the Citizens Savings Bank.

COMMITTEE.

A BEAUTIFUL COMBINATION. A pretty child with white dress, red slippers and hose. We furnish the latter.

RUDY, PHILLIPS & CO.

Louisville has never secured her share of Western Kentucky trade. The only reason advanced for this failure is because Louisville merchants have never given that territory the attention it demands.

As has been stated these excursion were inaugurated to dispel any doubt that might exist about Louisville markets. The same state of affairs was found to exist in Central Kentucky, but the trip there did much to dispel these doubts. It certainly created a more kindly feeling towards Louisville, and the merchants who made the trip are well satisfied with the good accomplished. Every member of the state board of trade feels the same way about this trip to Western Kentucky, and they believe it will do everybody much good.

Mayor Lang then extended an invitation to the visitors to visit the third floor of the hotel where there were refreshments. Following this was dinner.

THE TRIP DOWN.

Last night the board of trade delegation spent at Owensboro Springs. This morning it started early, and at each place was greeted by large and enthusiastic crowds.

They were at Kuttawa for twenty minutes, a stop not on the schedule, and while there walked over Silver Cliff park, and greatly enjoyed the scenery. Many people were out at all the country towns to see the big special go through, and the delegation was repeatedly cheered. The reception in Southwest Kentucky has been most cordial, and they all seem well pleased with it.

ENTERTAINMENT AND DEPARTURE.

After dinner all visitors who desired were shown over the city. Many of them spent the remainder of the time meeting the business men of Paducah, and visiting the various business houses.

At 3 o'clock they left for Mayfield and Fulton well pleased with their trip, and inviting their Paducah friends to call on them at Louisville at any time.

NOTES.

The Illinois Central has handled the crowd as the road handles everything. The special has been on time ever since it left Louisville, and in many places made the runs at the rate of a mile a minute, and in one place at the rate of 72 miles an hour.

Messrs. I. F. Marconson, of the Louisville Times, and H. L. Mosgrove, of the Louisville Post, were among the newspaper men in the crowd.

The Newboys' band is all right. It is both large and well drilled, and gave a fine concert at Fifth and Broadway.

The delegation that came here today is one of Louisville's representative business men. A more representative set of men never went out of Louisville, one of the attaches of the crowd stated this morning.

Mr. W. F. Kelland, of the Illinois Central, is doing the honors for the railroad on the trip.

The crowd will spend two hours in Mayfield this afternoon and five hours in Fulton. Elaborate preparations for their reception and entertainment have been prepared at both places.

INQUIRY MADE.

HENDERSON POLICE ASK MARSHAL COLLINS ABOUT GEORGE GREEN.

Marshal Collins received a telephone message from Chief of Police Henry of Henderson today asking about George Green's character and his reputation. He stated that some passenger on the steamer Sunshine had been robbed of $40 and a pistol and had sworn out a warrant and had Green arrested for the theft of the money and pistol. Green is a well known character about the market house and there is perhaps not a more honest man in the city than George. Marshal Collins stated that he was, beyond a doubt, innocent, of the charges and suggested that he be turned loose. Nothing further has been heard of the matter and it is supposed that George was released.

THE TEMPERATURE.

The highest temperature reached today was 101 this afternoon just before the rain came up. The rain cooled the atmosphere very much for a time but taken generally it lowered the temperature very little. The indications for tomorrow are fair tonight and Thursday.

HIGH HONOR.

FORMER PADUCAH GIRL WINS RECOGNITION IN CHICAGO.

Miss Kate Robins is Awarded A Fine Medal For An Essay.

It will be of interest to the many friends of Miss Kate Nelson Robins and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Robins, formerly of this city but now living in Chicago, to know that she was recently awarded the first prize in her school for the best essay on American patriotism. This prize consists of two medals offered by the "Chicago Daily News" to the pupils in the various grammar and high schools in that city as an encouragement to patriotism in young America, and among so many it is no small honor to rank even second. Miss Robins won hers over 80 pupils in the eighth grade of the McPherson school, and deserves special credit. In commenting on the work for this year the Chicago Daily News says that there was a decided increase in the number of competitors and in the quality and character of the essays, bespeaking an intelligent interest in the historic records of the nation, and a loyalty to their country and its institutions, and that in construction, salient features and penmanship the essays of 1901 are pronounced improvements over former years. The medals are exceedingly handsome in workmanship and effect with name of the winner and school engraved on each, and mounted in a handsome leather covered, satin-lined case embossed in virgin gold, and are something to keep always. They were presented by noted Chicago citizens and the occasion was made quite a patriotic event.

Miss Robins stood very high in her classes here, and has an exceedingly bright mind, and while her essays will give pleasure to her friends and former teachers here, it will cause no surprise, and their congratulations and interest are hers.

THE KENTUCKY.

WORK PROGRESSING—NEARLY READY FOR THE DECORATORS NOW.

Work on "The Kentucky" is progressing rapidly and by Saturday night the roof will be on and the stage ready for fitting. The scenery man has been telegraphed that the stage will be ready by Saturday and he will probably be here at work by next week. The lathing is all finished and the plasterers have gone to work on the ceiling. Mr. Katterjohn's contract provided for the roof being on the building by July 25 and the favorable weather made it possible to finish even before that time. The interior decorators will be here by the 12th and will go to work as soon as the plasterers have finished.

—Mr. L. E. Dodd, formerly of the Benton Tribune, has gone to Frankfort to accept a position in the state prisons.

"LEST YOU FORGET WE SAY IT YET,"

Have You Got That $2.50 Gold Piece?

The whole of Paducah is talking about the SUN's plan to give away four $2.50 gold pieces at the Fair Grounds Fourth of July and from indications many will be pilled with the question "Have you got that $2.50 gold piece?" On all sides the cleverness of the scheme is acknowledged and many are the people who declare they will get "that $2.50 gold piece." Remember the men, or it may be one or two boys will be selected, will be at the Fair Grounds Fourth of July, two of them in the afternoon between four and six, and the other two between 8 and 10 in the evening. All you have to do is to ask the question, "Have you got that $2.50 gold piece?" at the same time showing a copy of today's SUN. If you strike the right person you get the money.

For the benefit of those who may have probably missed it in the two preceding issues we publish it again.

The SUN has hit upon a plan to add to the interest of the Red Men's celebration at the Fair Grounds on the glorious Fourth.

The management has taken four $2.50 gold pieces and put them in envelopes sealed. The envelopes will be given to four persons in whom we have the utmost confidence. They will be sworn to absolute secrecy and each of them will sign the following:

"I, _____, herewith declare that I have this day received from THE SUN a sealed envelope containing a $2.50 gold piece, which was placed there in my presence. I solemnly declare that I will not by word or sign indicate to any person or persons the fact that I am in possession of the aforesaid envelope until the moment when I am asked by some person the question, 'Have you got that $2.50 gold piece?' provided that the aforesaid person produces at the same time a copy of the Wednesday SUN. I will then deliver to the aforesaid person the sealed envelope containing the $2.50 gold piece, and will receive in exchange the name and address of the recipient."

The holders of these envelopes will be at the fair grounds, two of them between the hours of 4 and 6 p. m., July the Fourth, and two of them between the hours of 8 and 10 p. m. the same evening. No clue whatever will be given as to what sort of men they are or how they will be dressed. In fact it may be that some of our boy friends will have one of the envelopes, or some policeman—no one will know with the exception of the SUN management.

You will know all about it, however, when you ask him the question, "Have you got the $2.50 gold piece?" Don't forget you must show him, at the same time, a copy of the SUN of Wednesday. If you don't produce it when the question is asked he simply won't notice you.

These envelopes will be given to trustworthy people—people who will not tip their friends, so you have as good a chance as any one to get the $2.50 in gold. Employees of the SUN will be barred from this contest and it will in every way be a fair one.

COMES BACK

U. S. Deputy Marshal LaRue Reappointed, and Sent Back to Paducah.

Judge Evans Reappoints U. S. Commissioner for the Western District of Kentucky.

LOCAL APPOINTMENTS EXPECTED

U. S. Deputy Marshal M. W. La Rue who was transferred to Lebanon, Ky., some time since, has been sent back to Paducah, which news will be hailed with delight by his many friends here. In announcing his new force, Marshal A. D. James, at Louisville, is allowed three deputies for Western Kentucky, and these he yesterday appointed as follows: Milton J. Coleman, of Hopkinsville, a field deputy with headquarters at Bowling Green; M. W. La Rue, transferred from Lebanon to Paducah, and George M. York, transferred from Central City to Owensboro.

There were formerly nine field deputies in Western Kentucky, and the following are those who on account of the reduction were not re-appointed: John Rogers, of Leitchfield; E. B. Long, of Burkesville; Moss Dixon, of Bowling Green; G. W. Gilliland, of Owensboro; Maj. Geo. W. Sanders, of Mayfield; Lawrence Yonts, of Hopkinsville, and J. W. Huff, of Glasgow.

It is expected that today Judge Evans will appoint his clerk of the United States court and U. S. commissioner for this place, positions held at present and for many years by Captain J. R. Puryear, who will doubtless be reappointed. Judge Evans yesterday re-appointed the following commissioners for four years: Dudley Lindsey, Owensboro; George S. Hardy, Russellville; Harry Ferguson, Hopkinsville; Charles P. Motley, Bowling Green; James A. Congers, Glasgow; F. R. Winfrey, Columbia; Charles T. Brents, Albany; Charles C. Bolderick, Lebanon; and Henry F. Cassin, Louisville. Any one of these commissioners can be removed at the pleasure of the judge.

WANTS TO DIE.

JIM PRICHARD IN CRITICAL CONDITION AT METROPOLIS.

Constable Grant Rankin is Making a Valiant Fight to Recover.

Constable Grant Rankin is resting easy at Brookport today. Prichard, however, is not so well and is in a critical condition. He says that he does not care to live and wishes to die. The principles in the affair are not ready or in a condition to stand trial and if they are not any better before the beginning of the July term of court the trial will probably be postponed until the next term. It is the general opinion that matters will go hard against the boys as the assault was unprovoked and the officer was performing his duty. The charge of rape against Prichard, alleged to have been committed at Benton, is not considered serious but if he gets well and is returned to Benton he will be tried. The charge of rape was not made according to a well known official report until the expiration of thirty days after the crime was alleged to have been committed.

—There has been no adjustment of the Fols stock damaged by fire. Yesterday $560 was agreed on but before it could be closed the proprietor changed his mind.

NOTHING TO BRING.

VEGETABLES DRYING UP AND FEW PEOPLE ON THE LOCAL MARKET.

"The farmers have nothing to bring," said a well known gardener this morning in response to an inquiry about the slim market. "Everything is burning up or has already burned up, and many of the farmers have absolutely nothing that they can bring in to town."

The market is now the smallest known in a long while at this time of the year, and there is no telling what it will soon be unless there is a change in the weather and a good rain falls.

A Title Bond Contract between John VanCulin and J. W. Slough, for the transfer of land near Langstaff Avenue and 13th street was filed for record today.

GLORIOUS FOURTH

Arrangements Made to Entertain a Large Crowd Here Tomorrow—A General

Holiday—The Red Men's Powwow at the Fair Grounds the Only Celebration of Importance in Paducah—A Pleasant Day is Anticipated.

Paducah is ready for the glorious Fourth. The Red Men will have the celebration for this section at the fair grounds, and have prepared a day's entertainment that will not only prove a good drawing card for the crowds, but a credit to the city and the organization as well.

The grounds will be open all day, and in the forenoon there will be lively racing between the horses of well known citizens.

The big parade will take place in the afternoon, immediately after dinner and the performance directly after reaching the grounds. At night there will be another big performance, with several features added to those of the afternoon.

The grounds have been beautified for the occasion, and are made attractive by Indian tepees, settlers' cabins and a fort. The program for the entertainment is large and varied, and will embrace feats of daring in riding, all the Indian dances and several realistic acts illustrating life on the plains. One hundred horses will be used in the entertainment, and every thing on the program is well worth seeing.

There are to be Indians, soldiers, cowboys, rough riders, and the Indian village promises to be one of the most popular places on the grounds.

Tomorrow will be a holiday, and the post office, banks, and all the stores will close. There will be no courts, and added to the people who will spend the day away from their business will be hundreds of people from other places, who are coming on all boats and trains. Dean's Band will furnish the music at the fair grounds, and there will be ample car accommodations for all.

ANOTHER TRANSFER LINE.

Messrs. Palmer, Wilkerson and Kirby have secured the transfer privileges on the N. C. and St. L. railroad, and take charge tomorrow morning. They have an office in the Palmer house and at the depot.

DIED IN PROVIDENCE.

News was today received of the death at Providence, Ky., yesterday of Mrs. S. H. Williams, mother of Mrs. H. H. Loving, of Paducah. Both Mr. and Mrs. Loving are now at Providence.

PARDON FOR LYNN.

The State Board of Pardons of Illinois will meet on the ninth and an effort will be made to get a pardon for Ed Lynn, who is one of those convicted in 1896 of the murder of Ben Ladd.

PORTER SHOT.

TRAMP OBJECTS TO BEING PUT OFF THE "DIXIE FLYER."

Illinois Central News From This Vicinity and Elsewhere.

Last night Henry Harding, a colored porter on the "Dixie Flyer," the fast mail out of St. Louis south bound, was shot and seriously wounded by a colored tramp who was stealing a ride. He was ordered off the train by the porter and the tramp pulled a pistol and shot him. The shooting occurred about three miles south of East St. Louis and when the accident was discovered the train was stopped and the wounded man, who had fallen off the train, picked up. His watch was gone and it is supposed that he was robbed after having fallen off the train. The tramp had not been caught. The bullet struck Harding in the neck and he is in a very serious condition. He is now in the Illinois Central hospital at St. Louis.

Trainmaster Jack Flynn, of the Memphis division of the Illinois Central, arrived in the city this morning. He will soon have his office in Fulton and when everything gets in good working order his genial countenance will be seen in this city often, it is hoped.

Mr. William Flowers, the Illinois Central baggage master here, and family returned from Cairo yesterday. He says the city has improved wonderfully in the past fifteen years. It was his first visit to that place in fifteen years and he enjoyed the trip very much. This was the first vacation Mr. Flowers had taken in some time and he was missed very much by the employees at the depot and also the news reporters and other fixtures about the depot at train time.

Up to July 1, 1,817 miles of railway track was laid in the United States this year. Construction work is now progressing rapidly, and between 3,000 and 4,000 miles of track will be laid before January 1, mostly in the south and far west.

Master Car Builder Sessions is in Chicago today on business.

Operator E. N. Stanton, who has been in the local dispatcher's office for over a year past, has resigned his position and is succeeded by Operator Boswell, of Princeton. Mr. Stanton is one of the most popular operators who ever worked here and his resignation is generally regretted. He will probably remain in Paducah a month or longer before accepting a position elsewhere.

There was quite a bad wreck between Anna and Dongola, Ill., on the Illinois Central night before last. It was about thirty miles above Cairo, and was caused by a broken flange. About fifteen cars were derailed and demolished and the track was blocked.

HANDSOME MANTELS

GEO. O. HART & SON MAKE SOME GOOD SALES THIS WEEK.

Some of the prettiest mantels ever brought to Paducah are to be seen at Geo. O. Hart & Son's this week. Captain Hart has made some splendid sales on mantels this season and has at present a number of very handsome ones, just in, for Paducah parties. One for Mr. F. M. Fisher and three for Mr. C. W. Rodfars are about the prettiest ever brought to the city. The number of fine mantels sold in the city nowadays is very large and in a conversation with The Sun reporter today Captain Hart said his house is now carrying a better stock of these goods than can be found anywhere here; better than is to be found in many of the larger cities; that his trade on them has assumed great proportions and he is justified in carrying a good stock and will always do so.

A DAILY THOUGHT. "To know how to bring victory from defeat, and make stepping stones of our stumbling blocks, is the secret of success."

It has been suggested that the revenue stamps left unused in the hands of the public today be used as postage. The stamps can of course be redeemed, but it will occasion much delay and trouble, and to save this it was suggested to Third Assistant Postmaster General Madden. While he thought in some respects it would be a wise plan he expressed the fear that it would prove impracticable. He said it would hardly be advisable because postmasters are all given a certain amount of stamps to account for, and to have the revenue stamps used for postage would occasion endless confusion in the postoffice department, far more than could possibly be caused the public by the trouble in getting the unused stamps redeemed. The postoffice department must account for every stamp printed and sold, and this would throw into use stamps the department never heard of. Another plan suggested is that the stamps be sent to headquarters, run through the press and have "postage" stamped on them, and then sent back to be used for postage. Nothing definite has been done, however, and the probability is that the people who have stamps left over will have to let them go through the regular official routine.

The continued improvement of the Illinois Central railroad, especially on the Louisville and Memphis divisions, which it has controlled but a few years, shows that the prediction made when it assumed charge that the road would soon be among the best managed and best paying in the entire country, was well made. The efficient management has continually improved and added and changed until the road is now one of the best in the United States. The Illinois Central often experiments, but it is always for something better, and always results in some improvement. The road is now one of the most popular in the country, and never fails to benefit in every possible way the sections of country through which it passes. It does a great deal towards upbuilding every city it touches, and this, with its enterprise, and progress, have continually added to its progress and popularity until it has become elevated to its present enviable position.

It is only a matter of time until the bloodthirsty gang that has been persecuting the alleged slayers of Wm. Goebel, and by bribery, intimidation and perjury have succeeded in placing innocent men behind the bars without justice, and exposed in all their hideous hypocrisy. Justus Goebel, a brother of the dead senator, has been indicted by the Kenton county grand jury for securing the appointment of a man to the office of city auditor, and taking $50 a month of his salary as compensation. It is conscienceless men of this calibre who have been leaders in the crusade of crime against civil liberty and justice in Kentucky, and must sooner or later be brought to justice. Public sentiment is rapidly accumulating against them, and slowly but surely they are being unmasked by the trend of events, inevitable victims of their own deceit and perfidy.

A Mayfield candidate for mayor has announced among the planks to his platform: Extension of the city limits, graded schools, firemen, open saloons, equal taxation, less fire and more insurance, more water and less lights, lower rate of taxation and the use of both gold and silver as money. If the platform were adopted it would result in the introduction of several new departures in Mayfield.

It has been decided in Paris that no more automobile races can be run on the public roads unless they are run at a speed not exceeding that prescribed by law for normal traffic. In a preliminary the other day one petroleum motor blew up and injured several, and one car overturned and several of the racers became ill from excessive speed.

In Paducah all the people have to do is to run the delectable refuse from their houses into the gutter, put a little lime into it, get some doctor to testify that lime is a disinfectant, and continue to dump the filth in the gutters. This is doubtless considered modern sanitation by the Democratic council, which has refused to require people to connect with the sewerage.

Mr. Sam J. Roberts, of Lexington, has purchased the entire stock of the Lexington Leader, one of the best and most popular papers in the state, becoming the sole owner. Mr. Roberts is one of the best and most able newspaper men and most prominent Republicans in Kentucky, and has made the Leader what it is.

The grand jury at Hopkinsville in its report states that it finds the place full of gamblers. State Inspector Hines was exonerated of the charge of gaming, but Dr. McCormick was indicted for gaming in the city, but not at the asylum.

ESCAPED FROM OFFICERS.

HAL DILLON, AN ITINERANT BARBER, MADE A SUCCESSFUL DASH FOR LIBERTY.

Hal Dillon, sentenced to fifteen years in the Ohio court for the abduction of a fifteen year old girl, made a sensational escape from Officer Fry, who had him in charge on his way to the Nashville penitentiary Saturday. The man was a barber and his sentence had just been affirmed by the supreme court of the state. He was sitting near the door of the car in front of the officer when he slipped his handcuffs and made a break for the door, jumping off the train and disappearing in the woods. He has not been recaptured and has probably made good his escape.

AT HOPKINSVILLE.

FREE DELIVERY AND FREE ROADS INAUGURATED THIS MORNING.

Hopkinsville, Christian county, is celebrating an important epoch in her history today. This morning free delivery was inaugurated, but as the carriers have not yet been appointed, it will be some little time before the system is in good working order. Today all the turnpikes were thrown open for free passage, the toll gates being abolished, and no tolls charged. The county paid about $70,000 for the roads, and will spend $20,000 building new ones.

FULTON ARREST.

YOUNG MAN BELIEVED TO BE WANTED AT KANKAKEE, ILL., CAUGHT THERE.

Lawrence Robb, alleged to be wanted at Kankakee, Ill., for some offense, was arrested at Fulton yesterday, and tells a peculiar story. He was reared in Calloway county and was recently elected principal of a school at Bennett's, Hickman county, and claims that he was never in Kankakee, and knows nothing about that part of the country. He claims that the man wanted is one Will Knight, formerly released from the Eddyville penitentiary, where he served a term for horse stealing in Calloway county. He claims that Knight, whom he formerly knew, wrote him recently that he had sent him a grip to Fulton to take care of and that the grip, which he took out of the express office, is what led to the arrest. Knight he alleges, has probably been masquerading under his name in Illinois. He will be held for a requisition.

EARLY CLOSING.

THE RETAIL CLERKS TO AGITATE A NEW SUBJECT IN PADUCAH.

They will start a movement for the purpose of having all business houses close at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon in the hot summer months in order that the clerks may get off. It cannot be anticipated what the success of the move will be.

$100 REWARD.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreadful disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. COL. SCOTT TO MEET THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL'S INDUSTRIAL AGENT.

Mr. Geo. H. Powers, industrial agent for the Illinois Central, will arrive in the city this afternoon and meet Col. T. J. Scott, of St. Louis, one of the men who have bought the Grand Rivers furnaces, at 4 o'clock at the Palmer house. Col. Scott will arrive from Grand Rivers on the afternoon train. The nature of the conference is not known, but it is supposed to be touching on the future of Grand Rivers, and consequently of importance.

BEAT GOLCONDA.

THE MARBLE HALLS WON OVER THE ILLINOIS BOYS YESTERDAY.

The Marble Hall baseball team of this city defeated the Golconda team in a match game yesterday afternoon at that place by a score of 11 to 6. The game was called at 2:30 and was finished at 4 o'clock. There was good playing done on both sides but the local team was too much for the Golconda boys. Davis, in right field for the Marble Hall team made a good running catch and Winfrey on second base for the same team did excellent work. The Golconda boys made several fine plays but the support was not what it should have been. Dicke in the box for the local team was the feature of the game and struck out one dozen men. The Marble Hall team has an opening offered in Fulton for the 4th, but has not decided to accept the date yet.

DEATH AT MURRAY.

Mrs. J. H. Coleman, wife of the well known attorney of Murray, died Saturday afternoon late from dysentery. She leaves a husband and two children and was a daughter of Judge R. F. Mamin. Dr. J. R. Coleman, brother of the husband of the deceased, left yesterday morning to attend the funeral.

Ira D. Rockard, Duncombe, Ia., writes: "My little boy scalded his leg from the knee to the ankle. I used BANNER SALVE immediately and in three weeks' time it was almost entirely healed. I want to recommend it to every family and advise them to keep Banner Salve on hand, as it is a sure remedy for scalds or any sores." J. C. Gilbert.

DEATH NEAR LOVELACEVILLE.

Mr. George Lovelace, of near Lovelaceville, died yesterday from typhoid fever, aged 21. The remains were buried at Lovelaceville today.

A. O. Blanchard, West Bangor, N. Y., says: "I have been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years. Have doctored with several physicians and I got no relief until I used two bottles of FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE." J. C. Gilbert.

PINE DOG POSIONED.

"Don," Mr. Joe Nance's Mexican dog, was poisoned last week, and died yesterday. The animal was born in the City of Mexico, and was brought here by Mr. Nance several weeks ago. He was a harmless little animal and Mr. Nance and family feel his loss very keenly.

Allen Halverson of West Prairie, Wis., says: "People come ten miles to buy FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE," while J. A. Spore of Helmar, Ind., says: "It is the medical wonder of the age." J. C. Gilbert.

A six months old infant of George B. Willis, of near Unionville, Ill., died yesterday and the remains were buried at Mt. Sterling graveyard.

COUNTY ROADS.

MUCH WORK BEING ACCOMPLISHED IN THIS COUNTY AT PRESENT.

County Road Supervisor Johnson is doing good work on the county roads, and at present has five crews of men at work. Since he took charge May 1 he has repaired 75 miles of road and built ten miles of new road, and is now ditching the roads preparatory to graveling them. McCracken county has about as good roads as there are in the state.

An effort is being made to construct a driveway from The Pines, in Arcadia, over to Harrison street, and it is claimed that if it could be built it would prove one of the most popular roads in the county, and a driveway that would be much used.

YESTERDAY'S EXCURSIONS.

SEVERAL HUNDRED PEOPLE WENT OUT OF THE CITY YESTERDAY.

Yesterday there were four excursions out of Paducah. One was to Golconda on the Dick Fowler, another to Eldridge on the Cowling, another to Metropolis on the Betty Owen, with the crowd who went to attend the funeral of the late Marshall Oakes, and the last was a colored excursion to Columbus, Ky., on the Wabash and barge. The latter was crowded and did not return until 8 o'clock this morning.

All the excursions were fairly well patronized, and passed off very enjoyably.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING.

Both the men and boys' meetings at the Y. M. C. A. were well attended yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Alvin Barkley spoke to the men on "What Is It Worth," and his address was well prepared and very interesting. It was one of the best ever delivered at the association and he has received many compliments on his ability as a speaker.

Secretary Escott talked to the boys at Yelver park and his discourse was very instructive as well as entertaining.

TO ALL PERSONS HAVING FARMING, TIMBERED, OR MINERAL LANDS, OR WATER POWERS FOR SALE.

The Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railway proposes to use its best efforts to induce a good class of immigrants to settle in territory contiguous to its lines and to engage the attention of capitalists seeking Manufacturing Sites or Mining Property. It therefore solicits the support, the cooperation and the assistance of the people of every county through which its lines pass. The management earnestly requests that all persons who have farms for sale or lease, those who have timbered lands, water powers or mineral lands for sale, will send a brief description of the same to the railroad agent nearest them, giving the prices and terms of sale. The prices must correspond with the prices asked of local buyers. The management does not propose to aid in selling land to immigrants at exorbitant or speculative prices.

Large tracts suitable for colonization, at low prices, are especially wanted.

LUCKY LOVER

Young Man of Princeton Succeeds In Winning His Bride.

MARRIED AT MEMPHIS.

He Rode All the Way to Paducah On the Blind Baggage, and Then Pressed His Suit.

START ON A BRIDAL TOUR TODAY.

Mr. Richard Lee McGregor, editor of the Princeton Chronicle, and Miss Ivey Mae Conway, one of the prettiest girls of Princeton, were married Saturday at Memphis at the home of Rev. James C. Morris, pastor of the First Methodist church.

The Commercial Appeal refers to him as a modern Leechivar, and thus tells the story of his love.

Last December he fell in love with Miss Ivey Mae Conway, one of the fairest and most cultured young ladies of that aristocratic little Kentucky city.

The young lady responded to the young man's affections, and they soon became the most devoted pair of sweethearts in Princeton. But the course of true love never does run smooth. Miss Conway is practically an orphan. She has a mother living, but her relatives, who are numerous in Caldwell county, Kentucky, were anxious for her to make a brilliant match from a worldly standpoint.

McGregor was rich in energy, ambition and natural ability, but poor in the world's goods. A rival turned up in the person of a rich young whole sale merchant of San Angelo, Texas. The latter became enamored of Miss Conway and pressed his suit with vigor. In this he was encouraged by the young lady's relatives. They brought every influence to bear that would have a tendency to prejudice her in favor of the Texas suitor.

But she was loyal to her young Kentucky sweetheart, and on one memorable night she plighted her troth to him. Her relatives waxed wroth, and they importuned her to break the engagement. They brought every pressure, every artifice to bear, and at last the bond was momentarily severed.

The young man, in Kentucky parlance, was "game," however. His first failure made him more determined to win the prize of the fair girl's hand and heart. He applied himself again, and once more succeeded in getting his sweetheart to murmur the magic word, "Yes."

Again the relatives interfered. They impressed the young lady with the fact that she owed it to herself to marry a man of wealth and station. They at last worked on her so persistently that they almost forced her to come to their point of view.

Miss Conway's mother was neutral in the matter, and was really young McGregor's friend; but despite the fact, the conspiring relatives succeeded in getting the young lady to board a train to Brownwood, Texas, and her baggage was checked to that point with the intention that she should meet her Texas sweetheart and become his wife.

The relatives, fearing that she was still constant to her first love, provided her with an escort, who accompanied her as far as Paducah.

By some means, known only to lovers, the facts in the case were borne to Richard Lee McGregor. He was as resourceful as the hero in a novel.

He knew that it would not do for him to board the same train and mingle with the other passengers. He was bound, however, to be where he could meet his sweetheart in an emergency. Accordingly he boarded the front end of a baggage car and rode all the way to Paducah on what is called the "blind baggage." The fact that cinders blew into his eyes and that dust settled on his clothes was nothing to him. His heart was light because he believed that the brave alone deserve the fair. He felt that the prize he sought was worth any hazard, any risk, any discomfort.

When the escort left the train at Paducah McGregor went to the coach where his sweetheart was, and again laid siege to her heart. She was loyal to him and promised to become his wife. They came to Memphis and the young Leechivar from the Blue Grass state, after great difficulty, succeeded in having the young lady's baggage, which was checked to Brownwood, Texas, put off here.

They at once repaired to the Clarendon hotel and were made husband and wife at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of the Rev. James C. Morris, pastor of the First Methodist church, at 158 Second street.

The young folks are now guests at the Clarendon and will remain here until Monday, when they will start on a bridal tour. Richard Lee McGregor is a splendid type of the young Kentuckian, and of the up-to-date country newspaper man. The most eloquent compliment he paid his bride was the splendid fight he made to win her. With the spirit and ability he possesses, and with her loyalty to him under such peculiar circumstances, their future is destined to be ideally happy.

Observationsat Random

WHERE IT IS REALLY HOT. Away down south in Georgia they are having hot weather, but they don't get mad about it. Frank L. Stanton explains the case thus in the Atlanta Constitution: Too hot for thinking. Too hot to write. Too hot to quarrel. Too hot to fight. Too hot for talking. For riding or walking. But the world's out o' sight—out o' sight!

Too hot for dreamin'. By day or by night. Too hot for schemin'. For wrong or for right. Too hot for sighin'— For livin' or dyin'. But the world's out o' sight—out o' sight!

A woman appeared at the union depot this morning shortly before noon in a small spring buggy with a top attachment and the vehicle was loaded down with everything imaginable. She traveled alone and made her living principally by selling patent medicines, with which she was well supplied. She also had several pets. There were 9 dogs, all sizes and breeds and about half a dozen snakes, to say nothing about the coop of chickens she carried in the rear of the buggy. She stopped in front of a saloon on her way to town and imbibed in the malt beverages until she could stand no more and would move on only when a policeman threatened her with the law. She said she had been about and had always managed to take care of herself and then pulling out a bottle of her medicine attempted to sell the policeman a case.

Bicycles are used for many things but the following uses but to the iron steed are out of the ordinary. A well known citizen and councilman was passing on Broadway yesterday when his attention was attracted to the street by a most unusual sight. A colored boy was riding a wheel and carrying on his shoulder a big roll of matting, which according to the gentleman's report was a good load for a day. He saw a little further on a girl riding a wheel and at the same time leading a cow with a rope. When the cow would take a notion to graze she would ride around her and probe her with a small stick she carried. When he neared his place of business he perceived still another surprise in this line. A man was riding a wheel and pulling a buggy at the same time. He was hitched to the vehicle the same as a horse and was riding between the shafts.

If the hot weather continues for several weeks longer there will be few cigarette smokers left in this section of the country. There are at least two dozen addicted to the habit who have sworn off on account of ailments supposed to have resulted from the habit. While the habit is injurious it is not the cause of the sickness often attributed to it and especially in such weather as we are now having. A person will naturally drink more ice water than usual and his digestive organ will soon be in a very bad fix. When this part of the anatomy is out of order smoking will promote cramps and the natural result is that they think the ailment is caused by the cigarette smoking. In this way the habit had experienced a marked decrease.

While some interest is taken in the local Y. M. C. A. work not as much is manifested as should be. Every inducement has been offered and the promoters find it a hard matter to arouse any more than is at present infused into the members. The swimming pool project will be the best thing in the way of a feature that has ever been suggested and the promoters are pushing the subscriptions to rapid completion. All the members have expressed their willingness to add to the subscription list and many have already subscribed. It is something that all associations of any pretensions have and Paducah should not be without one. The merchants who are interested in the work should all come up and sign their names to the list and help a good thing along.

There is a man down in Marshall county who has invented a new sort of contrivance for summer weather. The name of it is "No flies on me" and it is something that is rigged to a wagon. It cannot be explained, for to see it is like looking at an inverted Chinese enigma, but it resembles closely a cross between a windmill and a flying jenny, and is hooked up to the wagon by a patent known only to the maker. When the wagon is moving, the thing fans those in it. It fans pretty hard, but when the wagon stops and the occupant feels more like fanning, the blamed thing stops, and he is warmer than ever. It is understood that the gentleman has offered to sell to the county of Marshall, but whether or not he sold it he would come to Paducah now and reverse the thing so it would fan when it was in motion, he might encounter no trouble in disposing of it.

Mr. Charles Emery Walks Away
With the County Judge Appointment.

HE WAS SURPRISED

The Two Applicants Were Greatly Disappointed—They Had Strong Indorsements.

COMMISSION ARRIVED THIS MORNING

From Tuesday's Daily.
Mr. Charles Emery, the well known cigar dealer, and a former magistrate, was yesterday afternoon late appointed county judge of McCracken county to succeed the late County Judge Tully, by Gov. Beckham at Frankfort.

The appointment created considerable surprise, as Mr. Emery was not an applicant, and had indorsed Mr.
Wynne Tully, and accompanied him to Frankfort to put his claims before Gov. Beckham. The other applicant was Captain J. M. Ezell, one of the oldest Democrats in the county, who also had strong indorsements.

Just why the appointment was made as it was is not known, and has created considerable talk in Democrat circles, especially among the friends of the two applicants.

Mr. Emery stated this morning that the appointment was a pleasant surprise to him, as he knew nothing about it, was not an applicant, and had no idea of what was coming.

He received his commission this morning and this afternoon will make his bond, and after it has been approved by Circuit Judge L. D. Husband, will go before County Clerk Chas. Graham, to be sworn in and then assume charge of the office.

The county judge has but two appointive offices to fill. These are the positions of public administrator and coal oil inspector, now held by Mr. F.
G. Rudolph, public administrator, and Mr. Wynne Tully, coal oil inspector.

Judge Emery stated this morning in reply to a question that he had the power to remove them both if he chose, but that he did not think he would make any changes.

"The time is short," he said.
"There would be no advantage in making any changes for the short time I will be in office."

Judge Emery is the youngest man to ever occupy the bench as county judge of McCracken, and is at present the youngest county judge in Kentucky. He is only 35, and this is his second office.

He served one year, the unexpired term of the late Justice Settle, as magistrate in the Fourth district about two years ago, and is a very popular young Democrat.

Judge Emery qualified before clerk of the county court, Charles Graham this afternoon and offered as his bondsmen Charles M. Leake and M.
F. Emery who were accepted.

SIXTY DEATHS.

THE TERRIFIC HEAT WAVE CON- TINUES THROUGHOUT THE Country—Many Deaths Reported As a Result of the Excessive Heat.

Washington, July 2.—The terrific heat continues over the east, and there were today, since midnight, sixty deaths in New York, thirty in Brooklyn, fifty in Pittsburgh and proportionate lists in other cities of the east.

Hardly any factories are running and in most of the cities building operations have entirely suspended.

NO DEATHS.

CONSTABLE RANKIN MAY RE- COVER FROM HIS WOUNDS.

The principals in the Brookport shooting affray are doing well. Constable Grant Rankin is not improved but is still in a fair condition and the physicians are very hopeful for his recovery. Jim Prichard is also doing well and stands good chances of recovery. James Mason is not so seriously injured and his recovery is assured.
The affair is still much talked about and nothing has been done so far towards giving the matter a hearing in court.

OLD CUP DEFENDER WINS.

Batons Point, July 2.—The old cup defender, Columbia crossed the bia's water boom was broken.

The Siberian Rail-way.

The Siberian railway will cross thirty miles of bridges. Of these the line to Irkutsk required a large number, including such important ones as those over the Irtysh at Omsk, 700 yards; over the Ob at Krasnoyarsk, 840 yards; over the Yenisei at Krasnoyarsk, 890 yards; and over the Uda at Nizhni Udinsk, 360 yards.

FULL VALUATION.

STATE BOARD DECIDES AS TO BANK AND TRUST COMPANY
FRANCHISE TAX.

Frankfort, Ky., July 2.—The State Board of Valuation & Assessment has finally acted in the matter of the state bank and trust companies, assessing them for franchise tax purposes at the full 100 per cent valuation, instead of at 80 per cent, as was done in the case of the railroads. This action was taken by the votes of Secretary of State Hill and Treasurer Hager, two of the three members of the board.

Auditor Coulter, the third member, voted to follow the action taken as to the railroads, and has filed in the records of the Board a written dissent giving his reasons for so voting. He claims that it is unjust to the state banks and trust companies to make them pay more than the railroads and national banks of the state. He says this morning that he has already received protests from quite a number of the officials of state banks against the action of the Board.

RAILROAD NEWS.

There was another wreck on the Illinois Central at St. Louisburg yesterday. Freight train number 152, in charge of Conductor Frank Coburn was derailed and two trainmen were injured. Andy Conley, a colored brakeman, was injured in the back and his spine was badly twisted or suffered lightly. His teeth rib was broken and aside from this he is not injured. Both brakemen live in this city and are now in the railroad hospital. The cause of the accident could not be learned. It was at first reported that the conductor had been lar passenger from Louisville was delayed some time by the accident.

BIO LITERATURE.

Phenomenal Writing Dying Out—Immortal Works Are Coming.

Certain critics predict that we shall lose in sight of the great novel soon.
They say that the trail is warm and that the footprints are large. A great deal of clamor arises here and there and publishers are holding up jack-rabbits for deer, but great game is not yet in sight. Seriously, it is a question whether present tendencies are conducive to the making of immortal works in literature. To be brilliant nowadays is to be successful, even if not great. A striking or unusual plot, a new and startling style and extensive advertising by shrewd publishers combined with an element of luck, insure the author good financial returns and some reputation. These are not small stakes, and when it is being demonstrated that works of little value can secure them, it is a strong temptation to literary workers to leave serious and more plodding efforts for sound money. Some authors dash off novels as they would dash off topical songs, and the novels show about as much reflection as the songs.
One day the public wants one thing, and another day it wants another thing, and we have fads and fashions in literature as we have in clothes and summer drinks. Romantic literature has the stage now—the flashing blade, the picturesque duel, the hero that laughs at a dozen opponents and bows gracefully to a pretty woman between victims. We cannot have a great literature until authors can take their work seriously and their gifts seriously, until they can forego present rewards and strive for their highest attainment.—Indianapolis News.

Senator Kyle Dies In South Dakota
—Interesting Career.

LIVED IN KENTUCKY

Began Life As An Engineer and Went West
—Was Subsequently a Preacher,
Then U. S. Senator.

WAS A WELL KNOWN MAN

Aberdeen, S. D., July 2.—Senator
Kyle died at 6:05 p. m.
James Henderson Kyle was born near Xenia, O., February 24, 1854.
His ancestors were Scotch Irish, and moved to Ohio in 1800 from Kentucky. His father was a civil engineer.

Senator Kyle studied engineering at the Illinois State University, and graduated from Oberlin, O., in 1878. He spent several years as a teacher of engineering, superintendent of schools, and student of law. He entered a theological seminary and graduated in 1882. He soon became pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church in Salt Lake, Utah. In 1886 he became pastor of a church in South Dakota. In 1890 he entered politics and was elected a state senator on an independent ticket. In 1891 he was elected United States Senator to succeed Gideon C. Moody.

While brought up as a Republican, Senator Kyle has generally stood for low tariff. He affiliated with the Populists, but later went back to the Republican party. He was married in 1881.

Senator Kyle was a man of imposing appearance and was regarded as a close student.

Lord Armstrong as an Angler.
The late Lord Armstrong's principal sport was angling, and he was an adept at that art. Even on this pastime his inventive genius manifested itself, and he fished with improved tackle and carried a bait basket of his own invention, in which the minnow was kept at a lower temperature than that of the surrounding atmosphere.

Aged People of Maine.

Maine has a considerable number of inhabitants who have seen three centuries. Eben Lancaster, of Bowdoinham, passed his century mark last October; he vowed for McKinley in November, and received a letter of thanks from the president. Patrick Kearney of Portland, a native of Ireland, is not far from 104. Mrs. Dorothy Scribner of Scribner's Mills, was 100 on May 25, 1900. Mrs. Eliza Pinkham of Millbridge, is 105. She was married in 1820, and has been a widow for forty years. Mrs. Caroline Hight, of South Norwichee, is in her one hundred and first year. Her father fought at Lexington and Bunker Hill.
Mrs. Ruth Curtis of Kennebunkport, celebrated her hundredth birthday recently. She has never seen a railway train.
Edward Spencer of Lincoln is 104. He has been married four times, and had twenty-five children of whom nineteen survive. He served in the war of 1812. Mrs. Selome Sellers of Deer Isle, was 100 years of age last October. She has lived in the same house for seventy years. Mrs. Sellers's neighbor, Uncle Nathaniel Robbins, 101 on March 13.

LEXINGTON WITHOUT WATER, WITH A HOTEL BURNING IN

Business Center—The Reservoir Is Empty and Factories Have Had to Shut Down Everywhere.

Lexington, July 2.—The city is in a desperate plight. The water works have broken down, the reservoir is empty, and as a result there is much suffering.

The factories have had to close, and there is general depression everywhere.

To add to the consternation the Adelphi hotel is burning and the city is threatened.

There is no water with which to fight the fire.

MACHINE-MADE TALK.

Brilliant Conversation Cannot Be Made Before Man.

Most of us know people who are continually and obviously striving to attain brilliancy in conversation. Some of these talk so beautifully—as did the model child in the old-fashioned school reader—as to give the impression that their beautiful conversation has been carefully prepared and elaborated before hand. At times it seems possible to detect the deft dragging in of a subject with which the talker is especially familiar, and sometimes one francies that one can discover an effort on the part of a whole group of people to guide the conversation in a predetermined direction. Questions are proposed for discussion in almost as formal a way as in the most formal literary club—and thus we get our brilliant conversation. There is just one thing lacking and that is spontaneity. And as this is essential to any real conversation, its absence is enough of itself to defeat the sole purpose of those who work so hard.
Of course, the endeavor is laudable, within limits. But the limit ought to be carefully observed—and it is not often that they are. The touch-and-go of real conversation, the flashing epigram, the apt story and the symmetrical conclusion have no place in a "made" conversation. Another thing to be noted is that even the best talkers—when they are natural, and not striving for effect—indulge but rarely in quotation. When, therefore, we hear a man reeling off quotations by the yard, we may be very sure that they have been scrupulously committed to memory, to be sprung at the slightest provocation. Doubtless, the artificial "conversations" so common in our clubs have had an effect on all of us. It is almost impossible for a conversation that is "led" to be easy and natural. This subject is one of some importance. For there can be no talking without talkers, and if the speechmaking, quoting type should widely prevail, we should soon have no talkers.—Indianapolis News.

tor of the Illinois Central, came over Pekin, July 2.—Five men calling themselves Americans were captured by Chinese troops in a town fifty miles from Pekin, and were turned over today to Maj. E. Robertson, commander of the United States legation guard here. The men, who were armed, demanded a thousand taels from the keeper of a pawnshop and got 500.

They filled five carts with plunder and then began shooting, not knowing that the town was occupied by 100 Chinese troops. The United States legation was notified and the quintette was brought in.

All parts of Pekin occupied by the British for police purposes were turned over today to the Chinese authorities.
The foreign ministers will meet July 3.

Washington, July 2.—Secretary Hitchcock has decided that there is no authority of law permitting a delay until October 1 in the opening of the Wichita Indian reservation in Oklahoma, as desired by certain cattle interests.

The secretary's announcement followed a hearing which he had given to representatives of the lessees and of companies which had loaned money on reservation cattle owned by the lessees. The cattlemen have paid the money up to the 1st of October, and said an injustice would be done them if the reservation is opened at the date proposed. There was a very full and free discussion, but the secretary did not feel he had authority to grant the delay asked for. While he has announced no formal decision in the matter, his views are to the effect stated and preparation will be made for opening the lands for settlement next month.

Buffalo, July 2.—The Niagara bank closed this morning. This was forced by the closing yesterday of the City National. The City National Bank was placed in the hands of a receiver Saturday night by the Comptroller of Currency Dawes, and did not open its doors yesterday. D. Lynch, chief of the division of insolvent banks, and Special Bank Examiner W. A. Mason took charge of the bank today, pending the arrival of Mr. Vaughan, the temporary receiver. The closing of the Niagara followed this morning.

Louisville, July 2.—Lightning killed Oth Morgan, near Carlisle; John Perry, near Middleboro, Mrs.
Sexton, Adair county, and Robert Hodges, farmer of Cumberland county.

Jackson, July 2.—The Tri-State Oil and Mining company has been organized here, with J. D. Newton as president and general manager; A. Bensigner, vice president; John W. Buford, secretary; M. B. Gilmore and R. F. Sprague, general attorneys; John C. Beyers, attorney for Arkansas. The board of directors are J.
D. Newton, John W. Buford, M. B.
Gilmore and A. Bensinger of Jackson.
John T. Thayer, of Booneville, Ark., and W. T. Sims, of Bayville, La.
The company will be chartered under the laws of New Jersey, and is backed by New York capitalists. The company owns about 8,000 acres of supposed oil land in the states of Tennesssee, Arkansas, Mississippi and Louisiana. The capital stock of the company was fixed at $250,000; $125, 000 of the stock is paid up. The company will bore at Jackson for oil in a few weeks.

Pittsburg, July 2.—It is reported that the big steel workers strike may be called off within a few days. It is generally thought that this report is true, as it appears all concerned are anxious for a settlement of the trouble and a return to work.

Ashland, July 2.—J. C. Berkley, a railroad engineer, crazed from heat, drowned himself in the Ohio here this morning.

Frankfort, Ky., July 2.—Gov. Beckham has signed the death warrant of Hollie Strutton, the condemned Anderson county murderer, and fixed Friday, August 16, as the day for the execution. This does not mean that the executive has passed upon and rejected the petition for a commutation of the sentence. The papers are yet before him.

Binghamton, N. Y., July 2.—
"There is no relief in sight from the present severe warm wave. Its force remains unbroken from Pacific to Atlantic, except in some of the Southern states. It may be four or five days before the east gets any marked relief, but even then it will be only temporary, for July will be a very warm month, warmer than usual."

Willis L. Moore gave utterance to the above words this morning after looking over the records received at the Binghamton weather station.
They may not be cheerful, but they come from the man who is supposed to know all about the weather, for he is the chief of the United States weather bureau.

Prof. Moore and wife have been spending some days in the Adirondacks and are ending up their vacation where Mr. Moore was born and brought up. They will remain here until the fourth, when Mr. Moore returns to Washington to relieve Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, while the latter enjoys a vacation.

Lebanon, July 2.—Richard Horde was killed from ambush in this county, and David Allen, a companion, mortally wounded. Clarence Ship-p, a neighbor, is missing and is accused of the crime.

NO MORE SMALL POX.

The small pox at Maxon's Mills has disappeared and all the houses fumigated. The scare is all over and everything is running smoothly. The disease was among the negroes, and they were isolated from the other residents and a strict quarantine maintained.

WART LORE.

Suggestions, Induced by Vaccination, Destroyed Ninety-Four Growths.

Among the curiosities of disease which pathologists must somehow explain is the disappearance of warts, often, apparently, under nervous influences of the character of suggestion.
As is well known, the stories about warts and their cure by strange devices are infinite, and in many cases are so strange that it is only on the hypothesis of suggestion that they can be explained or even believed. Needless to say, however, the theory that such solid and obvious outgrowths as wartlike masses can be made to shrivel and die off under the influence of such a mental process as suggestion has bearings which reach far and can hardly be limited to warts alone. A case is related by a doctor of a girl 15 years old who had a large number of warts on both her hands. She had counted as many as 94 on the right hand. Having read in one of the medical journals that a number of warts had been cured by vaccination, the doctor determined, with the consent of her relatives, to give the plan a trial.
He, therefore, revaccinated the patient on June 1. The vaccination was successful, but no effect was produced on the warts until seven weeks after, when they gradually disappeared, leaving temporary white spots, and when she was seen on August 20 she had no trace of them.
